

Because, because of, due to and owing to

English Grammar Worksheets

(www.perfectyourenglish.com)

Complete the following sentences using appropriate prepositions or conjunctions.

1. We were late the car broke down on the way.

a) because b) because of c) either could be used here

2. bad weather, the match was cancelled.

a) due to b) because c) either could be used here

3. His success was his Dad.

a) because b) due to c) either could be used here

4. The meeting was postponed the manager's illness.

a) due to b) owing to c) either could be used here

5. The match was cancelled the rain.

a) because of b) because c) either could be used here

6. I worked fast, I finished early.

a) because b) due to c) either could be used here

7. We didn't go out the strike.

a) because b) because of c) either could be used here

8. If I am still alive that is him.

a) because of c) owing to c) either could be used here

9. She succeeded her mother.

a) because of b) because c) either could be used here

10. I didn't like it, I didn't buy it.

a) because b) due to c) either could be used here