

Kinds of sentences

Grammar worksheets from www.perfectyourenglish.com

Blank spaces are given against each sentence and you just need to write whether the given sentence is assertive, interrogative, imperative or exclamatory.

1. My sister is a nurse.
2. Supriya works at a supermarket.
3. Where have you been since morning?
4. Take this paper with you.
5. How disgusting!
6. Give me a piece of paper.
7. What are you doing there?
8. What is your name?
9. I was surprised to hear the news.
10. Our team may win the match.
11. I don't want this pen.
12. Could you lend me a pen?
13. What a beautiful flower!
14. When are you going to return?
15. Who is your father?
16. My sister has a pet dog.
17. They have bought a house in the city.
18. Get me something to drink.
19. How kind of you!
20. She is the most beautiful woman I have ever met.
21. Put it down.

Answers

- | | |
|--|---------------|
| 1. My sister is a nurse. | Assertive |
| 2. Supriya works at a supermarket. | Assertive |
| 3. Where have you been since morning? | Interrogative |
| 4. Take this paper with you. | Imperative |
| 5. How disgusting! | Exclamatory |
| 6. Give me a piece of paper. | Imperative |
| 7. What are you doing there? | Interrogative |
| 8. What is your name? | Interrogative |
| 9. I was surprised to hear the news. | Assertive |
| 10. Our team may win the match. | Assertive |
| 11. I don't want this pen. | Assertive |
| 12. Could you lend me a pen? | Interrogative |
| 13. What a beautiful flower! | Interrogative |
| 14. When are you going to return? | Interrogative |
| 15. Who is your father? | Interrogative |
| 16. My sister has a pet dog. | Assertive |
| 17. They have bought a house in the city. | Assertive |
| 18. Get me something to drink. | Imperative |
| 19. How kind of you! | Exclamatory |
| 20. She is the most beautiful woman I have ever met. | Assertive |
| 21. Put it down. | Imperative |